"A STRANGE MESSAGE"

Stone Ear, nurse of Ruth when she was a baby, gives Ruth a message from her father which locates a sacred Wampum Belt, which will protect her from harm by the Indians so long as she wears it. When she is about to enter the Golden Canyon, she is lassoed from her horse and pulled up the side of the Canyon by the White Rider, who forbids her ever to enter the Golden Canyon.

She disobeys his orders because she has a sacred duty to perform. She is proclaimed Princess White Eagle, Chieftainess, and Gray Wolf and Standing Bear each plead for their respective tribes. Ruth is told that Gray Wolf killed her father. Gray Wolf overhears and realizes that he stands little chance of being granted the Golden Pool. As the pool will be divided equally between the two tribes should Ruth die before her decision, he plans her death. She is overcome by poisonous vapors and an Indian stealthily tiptoes toward her with trident raised.
